JETION NAMED FASTEST-GROWING COMPANY
IN DELOITTE TECHNOLOGY FAST 50 CHINA 2008

Jetion Holdings Limited (AIM:JHL), the manufacturer of solar cells and modules is pleased to announce today that its Chinese company, Jiangyin Jetion Science and Technology Co., Ltd, has been ranked #1 in the prestigious "Deloitte Technology Fast 50 China 2008" program.

The Deloitte Technology Fast 50 China program focuses on the technology, media and telecommunication (TMT) industry, ranking the fastest-growing technology companies in China based on their revenue growth over the past three years.

Commenting on this, Lijin Gai, Chief Executive of Jetion said:

"We are delighted to be named the fastest growing company in the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 China 2008. This award is confirmation of Jetion's rapid growth over the past three years.

It is a great honour to win a place amongst the prestigious companies in China, and we are confident that this growth will be reflected in the continued development and manufacture of high-quality solar cells and modules."

Mr Patrick Tsang, National Leader of Deloitte China's TMT Group said, "The Deloitte Technology Fast 50 China program recognises and honours the fastest growing technology companies in China. We congratulate Jetion for achieving a remarkable three-year average revenue growth of 34,706% between 2005 and 2007, the highest ever recorded in the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 China program. In view of the global financial crisis, the year ahead will be a challenging one for companies but I believe forward-thinking leaders who have the vision, strategy and determination to deliver exemplary performance will ride out the financial turmoil and continue to record fast growth in an increasingly competitive global technology marketplace."

Along with its counterparts in Australia, India, Japan, Korea and New Zealand, the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 China is a key component of the Deloitte Technology Fast 500 Asia Pacific Program which is reputed as one of the most established and objective ranking programs of fast growing technology companies in the Asia Pacific Region. Winners of the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 China Program will automatically qualify for the Deloitte Technology Fast 500 Asia Pacific Program.

About Deloitte Technology Fast 500 Asia Pacific
