

PRINT Back Back twice

Solar cell maker Gintech sees staggering growth in 2008

Nuying Huang, Taipei; Adam Hwang, DIGITIMES [Friday 6 February 2009]

Gintech Energy, a Taiwan-based maker of crystalline silicon solar cells, on February 5 released its 2008 financial report, with net profits jumping 291.92% annually to NT$1.91 billion (US$56.73 million).

Gintech 2008 financial performance
Item	Amount	Growth from 2007
Revenues (NT$ billion)	15.828	131.76%
Gross margin	16.88%	4.89 percentage points
Pre-tax profit (NT$ billion)	1.899	284.66%
Net profit (NT$ billion)	1.909	291.92%
Net EPS (NT$)	12.79	157.86%

Source: company, compiled by Digitimes, February 2009

Related stories:

- China solar wafer supplier LDK urged to cut prices \(Dec 4\)
- Gintech three-quarter earnings beat expectations \(Oct 24\)
- Taiwan government plans cooperation with China to boost Taiwan's solar energy industry \(Sep 12\)
- Gintech affiliate officially starts solar wafer shipments this month \(Jul 15\)
- Gintech inks solar wafer contract with Nexolon \(Jun 12\)
- Gintech raises solar cell capacity goal for 2008 \(Jun 6\)
- Gintech inks six-year solar wafer deal with ReneSola \(May 15\)
- Gintech to construct one solar cell plant per year through 2015 \(Apr 11\)